

They Are Afraid

There are, in this neighborhood, agents for several "bucket bowl" cream separators. "Bucket bowl" separators are the kind with big bowls, full of parts, set on top of their spindles. These agents say to farmers intending to buy a separator, "Look out for the Tubular," or "Don't try the Tubular," or "Beware of the Tubular." To hear them talk you would guess right away that is the best cream separator made, and that these "bucket bowl" fellows are afraid of it. And they are afraid of it. The Tubular surpasses every other separator in every particular, and you should take mighty good care you do see a Tubular before you buy a separator. I will be pleased to show you the latest Tubular, and give you an illustrated catalog.

FATALLY CRUSHED BY A FALLING WALL

A. J. West Lying at the Sisters' Hospital Without a Prospect or Recovery From an Accident Yesterday.

A. J. West was probably fatally injured yesterday at the corner of First and Jefferson street by a falling wall. He was taken to the Sisters' hospital. Late last night he had not recovered consciousness and his death was regarded as inevitable. The accident happened on the property of W. T. Smith, where West had taken a contract to tear down and remove an old adobe building. The work had been almost completed, only a corner of the structure remaining standing. West, assisted by another man, placed a prop, a heavy scantling against the wall intending to push it in upon the rest of the debris. But it fell outward and the weight of it was so great that the scantling was broken and the broken end was thrown back, striking West on the right side of the forehead, near the temple. He was crushed down and blood began flowing from his mouth. This happened a little before noon. The Salvation Army officials, West being a member of that organization, removed him to the hospital.

Very little is known here of the injured man. He came to Phoenix about ten days ago from Prescott. He had lived for several years along the coast and at different towns in this territory. He is 43 years of age and has been a member of the Salvation Army for fifteen years. He is a member of the Santa Barbara, Calif. corps. It is understood that his relatives live somewhere in Pennsylvania, but the name of the town is not known. It is also learned that he has a wife living somewhere and that they separated several years ago.

He impressed the officials and comrades of the army as being a good and industrious man. The staff captain of the local corps yesterday wrote to Santa Barbara inquiring about the injured man and also wrote to the staff captain at Douglas, who was formerly stationed at Santa Barbara informing him of the accident. A search was made of his papers in his room at the Gregory house for further information regarding him, but all that could be learned beyond what was already known was that he had his life insured in the Metropolitan company for a small amount.

COOPER IN COCHISE POPULAR CANDIDATE

Captain Rynning Brings Reports of His Growing Strength—Simpkins Suspect at Cananea Was Discharged.

Thomas Rynning, captain of the rangers, arrived here yesterday morning from Cochise county and left last night for Yuma on official business.

As is well known, Captain Rynning was among the possibilities for the office of sheriff in that county this year. At least, he was very favorably spoken of for the nomination on the republican ticket, though, like other good people, he failed to land. He says, however, that he believes this is going to be a republican year in Cochise county and he is certain that no republican candidate for delegate to congress was ever so popular as W. F. Cooper has proven to be thus far in the campaign. If Cooper does not carry Cochise county the captain will admit his inability to read signs. The party scrap for the county nominations he believes has only had the effect of solidifying the organization and it is full of good, virile working blood.

Asked about the case of the man arrested in Cananea recently, suspected of being Simpkins, the man connected with the assassination of Governor Steunenberg of Idaho, Capt. Rynning said that he had been discharged from custody. A Pinkerton detective who knew Simpkins, was sent for to identify him and he said at once that the suspect was not Simpkins.
